MEDIA SUMMARY

One again, this week, our coverage was extremely light. (With no releases, I guess that's to be expected!)

The AP office in Sioux Falls has gone through a complete turnover. JD Wilson is now the new person in charge and Marsha Westra is the AP writer. JD was very friendly the first time I talked to him on the phone. We talked of getting together sometime in the near future. I tried to see him on Saturday, when I brought the release he wanted over, but he wasn't there. I have a good feeling about him and I'm sure he'll be better than Jim Carrier.

I learned that Craig is in better company than I thought with the Mitchell Daily Republic. In addition to Dave Kranz, the City Editor is Sheryl Crase who is another good Democrat. She went with us to the Annual Meeting of the Third Planning District in Armour this week and did a story on the event the following day.

NOTES

Laurie says that we need: Blue felt tips; White-Out; Blue Ball Point Pens, and Center-cut legal size file folders.

If there is an extra Catalogue of Federal Assistance, we could sure use one. If you are not familiar with it, it is the BIG blue, hard cover, loose leaf binder with a listing of all federal assistance. The listing is categorized in several different ways. Not a week goes by in which that book wouldn't help us here a great deal.

Thanks to whomever it was who sent the extra Background Reports. The folk up in the Political Science Department at State are very appreciative of the fact that they can get this information.

Mimi: The Young Democrats Convention is in Huron on November 19th and 20th. Did Jim get an invitation? If yes, did we send them anything special yet to read at the Convention? If not, I will write something and take it over there.
